

NORTH LIBERTY BLUES & BBQ

North Liberty Blues & BBQ celebrated its 10th year in 2016 with a record-breaking crowd of over 15,000 attendees at Centennial Park for a day of live music, mouthwatering barbecue, craft brews and great company. A "next level festival," as dubbed by The Gazette, Blues & BBQ has become a North Liberty tradition, and the tremendous support from sponsors has allowed us to produce an atmosphere that has created unforgettable memories for residents young and old. The planning committee is already hatching plans to make 2017 even better, and we need your help.

Your partnership supports our festival's effort to provide free, fun entertainment for North Liberty families and area residents while supporting local nonprofits. With a growing population and increasing event expenses, your partnership will help us keep the festival free and reach the next level of programming. We appreciate your consideration of a 2017 sponsorship.

Why support North Liberty Blues & BBQ?

Tradition

North Liberty families have been looking forward to the annual North Liberty Blues & BBQ since 2007, and we hosted some 15,000 guests in 2016 in Centennial Park. North Liberty's population recently surpassed 18,000 residents, so we'd say Blues & BBQ has become the place to be in July.

Volunteerism

The event brings over 300 volunteers together each year. Our volunteers help with everything from manning the inflatable rides to assisting the musicians to serving beverages to cleaning up after the party. Without our dedicated community members, this celebration would not be possible.

Non-Profit

The North Liberty Community Betterment Group is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Every year we raise funds from within the community. All profits from Blues & BBQ go towards the next year's event and local charitable organizations. Contributions are tax-deductible.

Bigger and Better

We're growing, and 2017 will be the best yet. Plans are already in the works to add a "friends of Blues & BBQ" event on Friday evening while continuing to offer top-notch programming and entertainment on Saturday.

Build Community

North Liberty is the second fastest growing city in Iowa, and Blues & BBQ builds community by welcoming new residents and strengthening bonds with long-time residents through delicious barbecue and live blues.

Family Friendly

Blues & BBQ is known as a family-friendly event. We offer entertainment and activities for all ages.

Benefit Local Performers and Attract National Talent

We're proud to book some of the best blues musicians out there, including local artists. Just a few of the past performers are Kevin B.F. Burt, Evan Stock Trio, the Hector Anchondo Band, and our most notable act, St. Paul and the Broken Bones, whose performance brought national attention North Liberty Blues & BBQ in 2016.

Fun and Free Entertainment North Liberty Blues & BBQ is free for everyone. It's free to enjoy activities, listen to the music and Through the generous community support, we're able to keep this celebration free and open to everyone.

Kids (of All Ages) North Liberty is full of kids and every year they flock to the event. North Liberty Blues & BBQ offers up several activities for children. Kids, and parents alike, can enjoy inflatable rides, games and arts-inspired activities. Even the adults feel like kids at heart.
